MEMORANDUM FOR: ~~ORD Personnel~~
25X1A9a

FROM:

Director of Research and Development

SUBJECT: ORD MAG

1. During the ORD Career Service Panel meeting in April 1981, it was noted that the ORD Management Advisory Group has not been an active organization during the 18 months of its existence. The reasons for such inactivity are not clear, but the fact of its inactivity has led senior office management to question the need for such an organization.

2. Since the ORD MAG is an elected body, it was concluded that those people who elected the present members should have a voice on the continued existence of the group. Therefore, we would solicit opinions from all ORD personnel as to the need for and the role of the ORD MAG. These opinions can be communicated directly to the Executive Officer/ORD.

3. Absent strong feelings for the continuation of the MAG or an active and constructive role played by the group in the next six months, it is the consensus of the Career Service Panel to disestablish this organization.
